

BOARD MEMBER POSITIONS OF WILDCARE TASMANIA

Are you looking for a fresh leadership opportunity? Do you have the skills, experience, philosophical connection and time to commit to guiding an established not for profit charity making a genuine difference to wild Tasmanian places?

Wildcare is a powerhouse team of volunteers, financial donors and staff supporting the care and conservation of Tasmania's wild places. Wildcare offers some of the most genuinely wild volunteering and benefactor opportunities in Tasmania.

Wildcare is seeking expressions of interest for 5 Board positions, for 2 year terms. People who are attracted by Wildcare's purpose around volunteering and raising funds to support Tasmania's wild places and who have any of the following skills are encouraged to apply:

- Corporate governance
- Growing revenue and fundraising
- Strategic partnership development
- Community engagement
- Environmental volunteer management/experience

Current Board members are eligible to apply for reappointment. All positions are voluntary.

Location: The Wildcare Board holds 4 ordinary meetings per year split between Hobart and Launceston, in addition to an Annual General Meeting. Technology will be used to support remote attendance where possible.

How to apply: Candidates are invited to review the Wildcare Board Role Statement available from the Wildcare website here and email a written application providing details of relevant skills and experience to ceo@wildcaretas.org.au.

All positions will be subject to election by the Wildcare membership at the Wildcare Annual General Meeting, to be held 10am, Saturday 21 March at Mathers House, Hobart.

Enquiries: to Sharon Smith, CEO, Wildcare Tasmania. Phone 61654149 or email ceo@wildcaretas.org.au

Expressions of interest close 17 March 2020.
