- Send completed form by return email to: friendsoffreycinet@gmail.com
- Offers to participants will be made by 25 October 2024
- Volunteers must be over 18 years of age

This year we propose that the 2024 Schouten Island working bee will run from 25 November to 10 December. Volunteers are to select from the following options. These options may vary depending on conditions and numbers applying.

Option One will be from 25 November to 3 December. Volunteers will be asked to meet for a briefing on Monday 25 November and transfer to the island on Tuesday 26 November, returning on 3 December.

Option Two will be from 2 December to 10 December. Volunteers will be asked to meet for a briefing on Monday 2 December and transfer to the island on Tuesday 3 December, returning on 10 December.

Option Three is that you stay on the island for the whole period ie 25 November to 10 December.

Please indicate your preference in rank order for the period you are prepared to take on (number the boxes 1 to 3). If you are not interested in doing a particular time, please leave blank.

Option	Dates	No of days	Preference
Option One	25 November to 3 December, 2024	9 days
Option Two	2 December to 10 December, 2024	9 days
Option Three	25 November to 10 December, 2024	16 days

Volunteer code of conduct:

NRE Tas volunteers are expected to act in accordance with the principles of Section 9 of the State Service Act 2000 (the State Service Code of Conduct). Department volunteers are expected to uphold these principles by:

- Behaving honestly and with integrity;
- Performing duties with care and diligence;
- Treat everyone with respect and without harassment, victimisation or discrimination;
- Comply with all applicable Australian law and any lawful or reasonable direction by a Department Supervisor and/or authorised Volunteer Team Leader;
- Maintaining confidentiality when dealing with any sensitive information acquired during the course of volunteer duties;
- Utilise Government resources responsibly;
- Behaving in a way that does not adversely affect the integrity and good reputation of the State Service, including social media use.

Inappropriate behaviours will be subject to a review in accordance with the NRE Tas Issues and Grievance Resolution process. A significant breach may result in a volunteer's registration being cancelled.
